

This is CryptoWallet

CryptoWallet.com is a revolutionary crypto neobank that aims to bring literally any cryptocurrency under the sun to the same level of mass adoption as the dollar or euro.

Join us on our mission to make crypto adopted anywhere and everywhere!

We aim to create a platform where people will get to manage their crypto assets in the same way they would their fiat holdings. Imagine opening your favorite online store and buying whatever you'd like with your DOGE bag, or going to get groceries and paying for your can of Coke with your Cardano staking rewards. All of it will possible with a single banking app – but with crypto instead of fiat. With CryptoWallet.com, living fully on crypto is finally going to be a reality.

Product Highlights

- Crypto card launching in 2024 with 10 times more supported cryptos than any competitor and direct spending: simply tap the card to spend cryptocurrency with no conversion required and the lowest fees out there.
- Crypto-powered IBAN accounts pay any SEPA invoice such as rent and utilities with any crypto you'd like!
- Top up your spending crypto account from your non-custodial wallet with WalletConnect in just one tap
- Earn our deflationary native SPEND tokens with every card purchase as well as through staking and rewards programs
- Buy and sell crypto for crypto or fiat at real slippage-free market rates, low fees, and high limits
- NFT Finance instantly take out loans with your NFTs as collateral
- Range of B2B tools such as white-label, custom checkout and widgets you can place on your website and earn with us right now!
 Despite the name, CryptoWallet is not just a wallet it's a platform for operational use of your crypto assets. You can use it with any non-custodial wallet app you like through WalletConnect to get the full savings + card balance experience. All funds stored on CryptoWallet.com are fully insured against any potential compromise with a 100% refund guarantee.

Our SPEND token serves as the fuel that powers the entire ecosystem – its utility is built around ordering your card and upgrading your card tiers to make your limits even higher, receiving cashback for all purchases, service fee discounts, staking rewards, and much more.

We're constantly working on expanding its utility even further so that our community members can take even further advantage of it.

Join the revolution of money and let's make crypto fully adopted and spendable worldwide!

Zealy

We're leveraging the Zealy platform to incentivize our users to engage with CryptoWallet.com's website and social media accounts.

Users are given gamified tasks to complete ranging from following our social media accounts, inviting friends, interacting online, and answering questions about the project.

What is Zealy?

Zealy is active in hundreds of Web3 communities, including major players like zkSync, ImmutableX, and dYdX.

Users can create their own content, interact with each other, answer questions, and more to earn crypto tokens and, crucially, to gain the experience of interacting with each other and the project.

Framing the process like a video game rewards system makes it fun and easy to take part.

Why Zealy? Benefits for Partner Communities

Zealy has proven to be an invaluable tool when it comes to driving up user engagement and raising brand awareness for our partner projects as well as our own project.

They have They know They have made online friends in their new communities more about the project and want to use it earned some tokens and started to engage

Zealy essentially sows a seed of engagement that continues to grow in users after the campaign is over.

Rewards: How it Works

Users can receive tokens, merchandise, early access to products, special status on a Discord server, and more by taking part in a campaign.

Taking part is very simple – users simply sign up and begin completing tasks on the Zealy questboard for that project in exchange for XP, and XP points are then distributed to winners later on.

Some projects have hundreds of tasks on their questboard and thousands of users taking part!

As you can see from our own example, this can be used to help with onboarding, product discovery, social media engagement, education, and more.

Zealy can be leveraged to encourage interaction between CryptoWallet.com and partner projects as well as being used for the growth of partner projects directly.
